

Pull Up a Chair and Talk to Us

What pressure points are you facing in your organization or management team as you look to the New Year?

One of CMA's top priorities is to better serve you, our readers and members, so pull up a chair by your computer and tell us what you need. Just shoot us an email at ben@cmaonline.org and give us your comments in response to any or all of the following three questions:

If you could name two articles for future issues of Christian Management Report that would really catch your attention and deliver high value because of pressure points you are facing, what would they be?

If you could suggest two authors you'd like to hear from in a future issue, who would they be and what would they write on?

This issue focused on Managing Your Private World. What article did you wish you would have found, but didn't, that we could include in a future issue?

By knowing the challenges you are facing in your work and organization and your wish list for articles, we can shape magazine and website content to ramp up your effectiveness as a manager, team leader, or member of the executive team. Thanks so much!
